Study in Germany

German higher education institutions enjoy an excellent reputation all over the world. German degrees carry great prestige while teaching and research provide impulses for innovation and progress. Many universities cooperate with industry companies to ensure you benefit from a practice-oriented education that is relevant for the labour market.

Webinar Series “Study in Germany”

The webinar series consists in online presentations by 15 German universities and educational institutions followed by Q&A-sessions. A headset is needed. You can ask questions via chat. The webinar series addresses audiences in Brazil.

The webinars are conducted in Portuguese or English [see webinar schedule]. You need to register for each day of the webinar series separately. Each day is introduced by a short presentation on studying in Germany and funding opportunities. You can join the webinars any time.
