

Selection Process and Period

The selection process involves the following steps:

1. Written test for English language comprehension and purpose of study
2. Group discussion
3. Personal interview in India conducted by representatives from both universities

The selection will take place in Coimbatore, India from April - May (1st round)
June – July (2nd round)

Course Commences:

PSG Institute of Advanced studies, India – August each year
Hof University, Germany - March the following year